OnIowa! Scavenger Hunt Clues

Series 1 – Eastside

1. This building is the hub of student life on campus. Inside of it, you can find a bookstore, tech store, bank, tutoring center, two dining areas, a patio by the river, and lots of Hawkeye pride. Choose one of these features to get a picture to kick off your scavenger hunt!

2. If you need a book, here’s where you should look! It’ll help you find some Food for Thought, so all that studying won’t be for naught.

3. Where on campus can you climb to new heights and dive into deep waters? You may need to “rack” your brain for this one.

4. Gadgets and gizmos and circuits, oh my! Want to build structures as high as the sky? The study of this in one building can be; it shares its name with one in the navy.

5. I’m the oldest building on the University of Iowa’s campus. One of five on a hill, you will get one of the best views on campus from my steps.

6. Now that you’ve found my golden dome, turn and wave at the kiddos in the hospital.

7. You’ve just found the oldest building on campus, but do you know what date the University of Iowa was founded? Look for a clue at the intersection of Iowa Ave. and Clinton St.

8. There are two museums located on the Pentacrest; you’ve already found one. Can you find the other? With a name that makes you think of a Scottish wedding, go inside to find its mascot Rusty who is over 10 feet tall and 12,000 years old.

9. This building can be found in an episode of the TV show Friends. It also used to be a part of the Pentacrest before it was moved across the street.

10. If stocks and bonds are your game, then you should know this name. To some a fatherly figure, this so-name building could hardly get any bigger.

11. Has this scavenger hunt made you lose your mind? Looks like someone already has. Can you find the brain on the sidewalk?
