Onlowa! Scavenger Hunt Clues

Series 2 – West Side

1. Built in 2015 this is the place you can grab a burger brick oven pizza, chicken tenders and play a round of pool with your new friends. Its name shares the colors of our institution... Go Hawks!

2. Established in 1898, this college has a rich history of preparing healthcare practitioners to achieve excellence in clinical practice, research, and leading systems of health care. Students who complete this program earn a BSN degree and celebrate by jumping in the pool as a class.

3. Proud of their west side location and their lawn, this is an office you can visit when you are feeling under the weather. They take both in-person appointments or meet with you virtually.

4. A building where you can check out books or boxes of bones where you will find all your future healthcare providers studying.

5. As a competitor and coach, bronze was not acceptable for this famous Iowa Legend. This monument can be found near the mats where his coaching record was 355-21-5.

6. This building was a part of the 2017 Disney Spirit Award. You will find our fans waving to its patients after every 1st quarter of Hawkeye Home Football Games.

7. Named after the University of Iowa’s only Heisman Trophy Winner, our football team calls this home.

8. These 4 locations provide a “Home Away from Home” for many students. The centers provide intra-and cross-cultural education, leadership and organizational development opportunities, social justice education, and change.

9. A quick step away from your Health and Human Physiology classes, this 334,000 square feet facility housing 8 basketball/volleyball courts, 16 racquetball courts, swimming pools, and some academic courses.

10. This college ranks #17 in the nation and just relocated to a brand-new building in 2020.
